Defendants.)	ORD	ER OF DISMISSAL

Plaintiff, an inmate in the San Francisco County Jail and frequent litigator in this Court, has recently filed the twelve pro se civil rights cases listed above. On May 18, 2000, this Court informed Plaintiff that under the "three-strikes" provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) he generally is ineligible to proceed in forma pauperis in federal court with civil actions filed while he is incarcerated. See Grimes v. Oakland Police Dept., C 00-1100 CW (Order Dismissing Complaint, 5/18/00). Since then, Plaintiff has continued to file hundreds of civil rights actions seeking in forma pauperis status. With respect to each action filed, the Court conducts a preliminary review to assess the nature of the allegations and to determine whether Plaintiff alleges facts which bring him within the "imminent danger of serious physical injury" exception to § 1915(g). In the past, Plaintiff has routinely been granted leave to amend to pay the full filing fee and to state cognizable claims for relief, but he has habitually failed to do so. For example, in 2003 alone Plaintiff's failure to comply resulted in the dismissal of approximately thirty-six actions under § 1915(g).

In accord with this ongoing practice, the Court has reviewed the allegations in the present actions and finds that Plaintiff alleges no facts which bring him within the "imminent danger" clause. The majority of these actions challenge the validity of his arrest, criminal charges, and criminal proceedings that led to his current incarceration. He otherwise makes nonsensical or inherently impossible allegations, such as that defendants (jail and other county officials) are "covert terrorists," deal in "agent orange" and cyanide, and commit "kidnap and post-9/11/01 hijacking and robbery terror." As has been explained to Plaintiff countless times, such claims are barred. Therefore, it would be futile to grant Plaintiff leave to amend. And even if Plaintiff did amend, he would be required to pay the $350.00 filing fee, which he has never done.

Accordingly, these cases are DISMISSED without prejudice under § 1915(g). The applications to proceed in forma pauperis are DENIED. No fee is due. If Plaintiff is so inclined, he may bring his claims in a new action accompanied by the $350.00 filing fee. In any event, the Court will continue to review under § 1915(g) all future actions filed by Plaintiff while he is incarcerated in which he seeks in forma pauperis status.

The Clerk of the Court shall close the files and terminate all pending motions in the cases listed in the caption of this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: February 4, 2013
